THE MORNING WORSHIP SERVICE

EASTER SUNDAY APRIL 10, 1955

10:45 AM

PRELUDE "Open the Gates of the Temple" Knapp
"Bells in an Easter Garden" Lorenz

THE CALL TO WORSHIP By the choir

THE OPENING HYMN No. 154 (237) "Christ the Lord is Risen Today!"

INVOCATION - (In unison) O Thou immortal Christ, who by Thy victory over death and the grave hast brought life and immortality to light, raise us, by faith in Thee, from the grave of sin, and deliver us from the mortal darkness of unbelief that our hearts may be fortified with an eternal hope and our affections set upon things above. In His name, we pray. Amen.

THE RESPONSIVE READING

Minister - Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

People - For since by man came death, by man also came the resurrection of the dead.

Minister - For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

People - For He must reign, till He hath put all enemies under His feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

Minister - But some man will say, "How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?"

People - Thou foolish one! That which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.

Minister - And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that she be.

People - But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body.

Minister - So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body.

People - And as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Minister - Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written. Death is swallowed up in victory.

People - Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
