"A House of Prayer for All People"

Our Welcome

To all who sin, and need a loving Saviour; to all the lone who need a friendship true; to all who walk the humbler paths of service; to all who toil with mind and body, too; to those of burdened hearts, with grief and sorrow; to those of spirits glad and free from care—to all a hearty welcome is extended to come with us for work and praise and prayer.

CHURCH SCHOOL 9:30: MORNING WORSHIP 10:45

Order of Divine Worship

(Let all observe a reverent silence when the Organ Prelude begins)

Organ Prelude—Medley of War Songs and National Airs.

Our National Anthem, the first stanza, only, to be sung by the Choir.

Silent Prayer: (Let all spend a few moments in silent Prayer)

Hymn—533, O God, our help in ages past..... Isaac Watts, 1674-1748

O God, our help in ages past, Before the hills in order stood
Our hope for years to come, Or earth received her frame.
Our shelter from the stormy blast, From everlasting Thou art God,
And our eternal home! To endless years the same.

Under the shadow of Thy throne A thousand ages in Thy sight
Still may we dwell secure; Are like an evening gone:
Sufficient is Thine arm alone, Short as the watch that ends the night,
And our defense is sure. Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

Organ Interlude—during which the people may be seated.

Prayer, concluding with the Lord's Prayer, and Choral Response.

Scripture Lesson, Hebrews 11: 1-13.

Offertory—The Unknown Soldier O'Hara

Reading of the names on the Church Honor Roll... Mr. Harold B. Brown

Solo—There Is No Death O'Hara

Mrs. Elton B. Woodford

The Formal Dedication of the Church Honor Roll: Presented by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Mr. A. C. Sonneland.

Acceptance by the Minister, Dr. Eitelgeorge.

We Dedicate This Memorial In Perpetual Memory to those who gave their lives that the Lamp of Freedom may continue to light the way of Truth and Righteousness to all people, races and nations; in honor of those who made the necessary sacrifices to serve our Country in this worthy cause; in the hope that it may become an incentive to all who worship here to make any needed sacrifice to safeguard home, and country, and the privilege of public worship. And we here solemnly pledge ourselves to carry on until the task is fully accomplished; till our world shall be safe for men and women and little children; till war shall be no more; till hatred and distrust and fear shall cease; till the song of the angels shall be realized,—“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.”

Anthem—Cherubim Song Tkack

SERMON: "Let Us Here Highly Resolve" ----- Dr. Eitelgeorge

These all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. Hebrews 11:39, 40

Hymn—Our National Hymn, first and last stanzas, Choir and Congregation.

We substitute four words in the last stanza for the encouragement of the Delegates of 46 Nations now working for a New World Order in San Francisco.

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring

All Nations' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may Our World be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King. Amen.

Benediction—Doxology.

Postlude—Marche Brillante ----- Lowden

No services here tonight; all are asked to attend Baccalaureate Services at the High School.

Wesleyan Service Guild will meet for a picnic with Mrs. Merle Wilson Monday at 6:30.

The new Upper Room is here.

Next Sunday, June 3, is National Shut-in's day. Visit someone who can't enjoy God's out-of-doors.

The last page of the Bulletin contains a complete list—or as nearly complete as we have been able to make it—of all who have entered the Service of our Country, up to May 26, 1945. Additional names will be added next month when several of our boys will be inducted into the Armed Forces. We believe that everyone will want to take home this Souvenir Bulletin and keep it as a memento.

I give and bequeath to the First Methodist Church, of Canon City, Colo., in trust the sum of $1000 (One Thousand Dollars), with the request and direction to the Board of Trustees of said Church, to invest the said sum of $1000 (One Thousand Dollars) in such security or securities as said Board shall deem advisable, paying the income there from to the Treasurer of said Church at each interest bearing period on the security or securities purchased, such income to be applied on the General Church expense or Missionary Contributions of said Church and the records of said Church shall be so carried that the income received as herein specified shall be known as: A Continuing Contribution from, and as in Memoriam to, Cynthia E. Shaw.
